Zoom meeting - 7pm

Tina Curran, My Design Process - From Concept to Quilt

She has been a quilter for over 25 years and her work has earned multiple blue ribbons and the rank of Master Quilter at her local quilt guild in Glendale, CA. Her quilts have hung at major quilt shows and have been featured more than 20 times in quilt magazines. She has been designing patterns since 2002, began giving lectures and teaching in 2012 and in 2021 started hosting her own virtual quilt workshops.

The goal of her lecture at February's meeting is to demystify the design process by breaking it down into its elements and to inspire other quilters to design their own quilts. <https://www.tinacurran.com/>

- "Show and Share" Please send your pictures to Lori Duggan (hopedugg@hotmail.com) before 12 noon on Sunday February 16. Please acknowledge the designer (pattern, book, magazine, etc.) and anyone who participated in its construction.

From the President

The snowing and blowing has made staying home a good idea! Hope you are spending some of it in front of your sewing machine!! I've been playing with Dresden plates after our successful sew day. Pauline's Place was full as we tried these out. Thanks to Ruth for her leadership! We all had a blast!!

We are seriously looking for new executive members, so please consider what you can help out with. We need you computer people to consider helping set up our Zoom meetings. Without a Zoom coordinator, it will be hard to have Zoom meetings during winter months and our interest groups will not happen. And we still need someone to lead this guild!

Due to the resurfacing of The Julie MacArthur arena floor this summer, we will not be having our Quilt show in conjunction with the Fall Fair.

As I write this, the weatherman tells us to stay off the roads and hibernate at home....i hope you are like me and take advantage of the 'gifted sewing time!'

COMMUNITY OUTREACH REPORT

The downside of January, far too much snow!

The upside, lots of time in the sewing room!

We hope you are able to enjoy both the sewing time and a little outdoor time. Wanna build a Snowman!?

We'd like to express our appreciation and gratitude to all our members. The quilts logged into the Outreach inventory for 2024 was a fantastic....drum roll, please.....278 quilts! This shows the outstanding generosity and creative drive exhibited by all of YOU!

Thank you for all your support.

Activity Mats

There is still an ongoing need and we still have lots of supplies. The Fidget Fridays have been a great success and we hope to see you come in and join in the fun and social time. Watch the newsletter for future dates.Thank you Marnie for spearheading this project.

We still have a need for the construction of the component pieces that make putting the activity mats together so much easier. We need the zipper pouches, bead labyrinths, or the button/velcro tabs made. One of each of these components goes into a kit, to help simplify the construction of the larger mat. If you would like to help in this way, please let us know and we will supply all the required material. Helping in this way makes a BIG DIFFERENCE in the kit bags assembly.

There are kits available at Pauline's Place if you prefer to do some construction on your own time.

LIBRARY NEWS

We have three new books.

- Dresden Quilt Blocks Reimagined, by Candyce Copp Grisham was featured at the November meeting by our speaker and was the topic of a recent sew day. In case you miss either or want to delve into plates, the book is available. Embrace the art of quilting with simple instructions to create beautiful Dresden plate blocks. Each variation looks unique and all are astonishingly easy to sew. Use any and all of the twenty-five design elements, including four different edge treatments, a range of sizes (2"–9 1/2"), and an amazing variety of patterns, from sawtooth to flying geese. Mix it up even more by fabric piecing wedges and using up to twenty different colors for each wedge.
- Accidental Landscapes: These techniques were part of our January art group. A book by Karen Eckmeier. "Discover the secrets of creating a fabric landscape accidentally using this topstitch/layering technique. These quilted scenes are surprisingly simple to create! The book contains over 30 new inspiring landscapes to guide you along the way. You'll learn how to capture the feeling of a scene in simple layers. Create a landscape based on a favorite photo or color palette. Adopt the same easy layering and curved piecing by a mile."
- Barn Star Sampler, by Shelley Cavanna. Inspired by painted and wood quilt blocks that adorn barns, author Shelley shares 20 blocks and seven quilt designs destined to pass the test of time. The Barn Star Sampler quilt, quite possibly the star of the show, incorporates 20 different block designs spanning 4" to 24" in a fresh and modern sampler-quilt layout. Combine patchwork blocks to create a table runner, a wall quilt, a lap quilt, and full-size bed quilt designs. With so many block sizes, star variations, and layouts, the sky's the limit!

YOUR TREASURER WANTS TO RETIRE

I've been Treasurer since 2018. It's time for a 'transfer for power' to someone with different perspectives, gifts and passions. It's time for me to spend more time sewing and quilting, please. It has been wonderful to be part of the Guild and I'm not going anywhere. The next Treasurer doesn't have to be an accountant to manage the funds of our guild, but it is helpful to be familiar with computerized spreadsheets, reporting and email. It's useful to have a printer too, but it doesn't have to print in colour.

It was convenient to most of the Executive to drop into Pauline's Place to pick up and drop off documents. Our bank account is held at the Meridian branch in Owen Sound, with a very minimal monthly fee charged; we really don't want to move it. Due Diligence for the protection of the Guild and the Treasurer requires 2 signatures on each cheque. Those needing reimbursement must submit paperwork for payment, and paperwork is needed for all revenues too. Nothing comes in to or goes out from the Treasurer without the required paperwork. Once a year two Guild members review the financial records to ensure acceptable bookkeeping and accounting practices are maintained. The Executive is protected in their roles with insurance coverage as is our Quilt Studio 'Pauline's Place'.

As Treasurer you work mostly alone, but as part of Executive you report to them regularly. Membership approves the annual budget so everyone knows what we are doing together as a Guild. The Executive is a great team to be on, as we all work for the benefit of the Guild and our membership. Having new people join it regularly keeps us healthy, vibrant and growing. If you want to know more about something specific, please contact me at mmmcdunna@gmail.com. Please be in touch with President Connie Morris or nominating committee member Ruth Gole to offer your services for this or any position available starting in June.

.....ONCE AGAIN; Thanks for your commitment to our Guild. Really, "THANKS". Marnie McDonough, Treasurer

Spotlight on Katrina Clarke....by Ellen Crymble

Katrina no stranger to quilting. She admired her grandmother's skill at the treadle sewing machine where she created quilts for her family. Katrina's Mom did the same on her electric sewing machine often creating simple blocks in her quilts that were then tied. She also embroidered quilts. Raised initially in the Palmerston and Hanover area, Katrina and her family now call Chesley Lake home. She moved to Chesley Lake 3 years ago from Elmira. She had joined the Elmira Needle Sisters, a group of women who did any type of needle work, embroidery, knitting, crocheting, rug hooking and quilting. She was a member there for 20 years. When she moved to Chesley Lake she joined the Bluewater Quilters' Guild. In her second year she was convinced to join the Executive on the Program Committee and said she has really enjoyed that experience.

One day at a soccer game watching one of her children she met a woman who quilted and suggested she join the local guild. At the time with 5 children and foster children, (which they did for 7-8 years), there was little time to quilt. As a young child Katrina's mother taught her how to sew so making her own clothes was just a given. She continued to make quilts as gifts. Her 5 children and now 6 grandchildren have benefited greatly from the quilts Mom/Grandma makes for them. In 1987 she took her first quilting class and the pattern was log cabin. That pattern is still a favourite of hers and she has gone on to make many quilts of that pattern. She also loves any quilt pattern that has stars as the focus. Eventually she was so hooked on quilting she started working in quilt shops in the Elmira area and found that it was possible to spend your wages on fabric. She still occasionally works for The Quilt Jeannie in Harriston helping out as her assistant at shows, or when busloads of quilters arrive at the store. She even makes samples of blocks when needed.

She loves to try new patterns and admits she is addicted to paper piecing, a Japanese style of quilting layering fabrics that are rough cut, thread art and eagerly explores anything that is "new" to the craft. A stint at a craft show in Toronto exposed her to a long-arm machine and she was thrilled to actually be able to try out the machine at the show. She watched in the stores as people brought quilts in to be long armed. With the encouragement from her husband she took the big leap and bought a long arm machine 6 years ago. She was producing lots of quilts and being able to quilt her own quilts and now other people's quilts has been very satisfying. She restricts her quilting to edge to edge quilting using a pantograph.

With 4 daughters and 5 granddaughters there is bound to be some sort of fibre art going on at all times during family gatherings. The knitting needles come out, the crochet hook is put into action, embroidery hoops, and quilting blocks are always present. Clearly it is in the family DNA.

Katrina encourages members to get involved in the Guild. Take lots of classes where you will be amazed at how much you learn from others. She suggests that you sit on committees because she has made lots of new friends as a result of her involvement. We thank Katrina for her generous contribution to the Program Committee. We have had a lot of great programs as a result of that committee's hard work. The Community Quilt program has also benefited from Katrina's involvement both through the quilts she has made and also for the long arming she has volunteered to do on other members' quilts.

YOUR HELP IS NEEDED!!!!

It's time to think of next year's executive. Several positions are open, specifically President and Vice-President. These are crucial positions that will either make or break our guild. Some committees are also needing new leaders. We will discuss it at the February meeting so please take a minute to consider joining the executive to continue the amazing work our guild does for the community and for the camaraderie of our members.

FIDGET FRIDAY FUN DAY is February 21

9:30 am-3 pm at Pauline's Place

- Drop in for as long as you're able, stay to play, search the stash & components, share coffee/tea & lunch (please bring your own), or stop in to pick up a kit to make at home.
- Bring your sewing machine if able, but not necessary. There's room for lots of friends to be creative together. Help us support those living in our communities with cognitive challenges.
- Hosted by Marnie & your guild friends.
 - More 2025 dates: March 28, April 25 & May 30.

Fall Fair Quilt Show

Owen Sound Fall Fair Quilt show will not be happening this year. With the Bayshore being repaired, the Rec Centre was not going to be available to hang the quilts, so we have opted out for 2024we'll see if we're missed!

Past-Presidents' challenge is complete

Many thanks to Olive Stanley for assembling all the blocks, adding the sashing and borders then doing a lovely job of hand quilting it.

It's a great tribute to the history of shipping and water sports in Owen Sound

In honour of Valentine's Day
